

COIMBRA PRIVATE EXPERIENCE

Further south, among the guitar sound and traditional capes from the students we arrive to the city of Coimbra, included on the UNESCO as a World Heritage Site, where one of the most ancient Universities in the world overlooks Mondego River.

You will discover the forbidden love story between Pedro and Inês de Castro that made a frequent subject of art, music, and drama through the ages.

During your Private Tour, you will visit the beautiful city center with fantastic architecture and university, narrow streets that hide love stories of the thousands of students that passed by the university, aqueducts and gardens, convents, monasteries and beautiful landscapes.

This private tour can be tailored according to your desires and time available.

Enjoy your visit to the beautiful city of Coimbra.
