

THE JEWISH'S HERITAGE IN PORTO

This half day tour is a discovery of the Jewish history, what left from the Jewish heritage, the most important families, curiosities and influences in the economy, and culture in Porto.

Guided by specialist in Jewish issues you will be taken, in chronological order, through the Jewish quarters that existed in Porto, up to the time of King Manuel the 1st edict of expulsion in 1496.

In this experience, you will also visit the fourth Jewish quarter and understand why it was built outside the city walls and understand how the Inquisition, that started in 1536, affected the local community and the return of this same community by 1753 with Marquês de Pombal.

During this intense adventure, you visit a secret synagogue in Rua São Miguel see a plaque commemorating the victims of the Inquisition- outside Mosteiro São Bento da Vitória and realize where took place the two Autos of Fé (near Portuguese Center of Photography). During this tour, you can also visit the biggest synagogue in Iberian Peninsula (Sinagoga Kadoorie Mekor Haim) and the museum.

This experience can be tailored according to your personal preferences and time available.
