

MEET LOCAL FOODIES DURING YOUR TRIP TO PORTO

Looking for a non-touristy thing to do in Porto? Why not make new friends while also getting to know the country food culture?

This cooking experience is a unique way to learn how to cook Portuguese food with locals that have cooking skills to rival any top chef. Not only will you enjoy home-cooking at its best and get to taste local delicacies but you'll also have a unique chance to experience local culture and to get to know the people by sharing a meal in a family home.

First we will visit Mercado do Bolhão the biggest local market, where you can buy everything from fresh food, vegetables, to herbs and fruits, feel the ambience of a typical market with peculiar smells and flavors.

This food experience will take place in small groups, giving you the opportunity to really learn everything there is to know about Portuguese cooking!
