

WINE AND TAPAS EXPERIENCE

This exciting wine & tapas tour starts around the table with a glass of wine and some typical products from the region. Nothing better than this to understand the importance of wine to the city- either ports or table wines.

During this wine and tapas adventure you will visit beautiful places related to wine production to understand how hard and meticulous is to create a such unique product. You will learn about the most important families lied to wine production, origins and histories along centuries.

To finish this experience nothing better than visit a wine cellar and learn about Portuguese grape varieties, aromas, senses and taste some of their unique Ports.

At the end you can also buy some port or table wines to get home and share with your friends and family.

This tour can be tailored according to your personal preferences and time available.
